The Rovers and Rangers unit of Government Degree College (GDC) Nagrota Surian celebrated World Scarf Day with enthusiasm and pride. The event aimed to honor the symbolic significance of the Scout scarf, representing unity, discipline and services.

Ranger Bharti led the celebration by explaining the historical and cultural importance of the scarf in the scouting movement. She highlighted how the scarf serves as a symbol of commitment to the Scout Promise and Law, fostering a sense of belonging among members worldwide.

To demonstrate the practical uses of the scarf, Bharti conducted a live demonstration showcasing various techniques including its applications in first aid, signaling and as protective gear during outdoor activities. The interactive session provides attendees with valuable insights into the versatility of the scarf beyond its symbolic value.
